Local Family Wins National Sweepstakes

EcoWater Systems gives grand prize to Cleveland, OH resident

St. Paul, Minn. (Nov. 11, 2005) – EcoWater Systems LLC announced today that Gloria and Tom Litwinowicz won a new Ford Mustang convertible through EcoWater Systems' annual Soft Life™ Sweepstakes drawing.

A celebration of the Litwinowicz's good fortune and the turning over of the keys took place at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 10 at EcoWater / Servisoft of Middlefield, the EcoWater Systems dealership in Burton, OH. Representatives from the company's headquarters in St. Paul were also in attendance to congratulate the Litwinowiczs and to present the grand prize.

Gloria and Tom Litwinowicz have lived in the area for the past seven years. Gloria is a development associate at Montefiore Foundation, and Tom is a teacher at St. Leo the Great school. The parents of two children, they are also very active in Worldwide Marriage Encounter, as well as in their church, St. Leo the Great.

Each year, EcoWater Systems LLC gives away a Ford Mustang convertible through its Soft Life™ Sweepstakes, a program to support EcoWater Systems dealers across the nation. Thousands of entries were submitted in the 2004/2005 contest. The Litwinowiczs entered their name at the EcoWater / Servisoft of Middlefield booth at the Great Geauga County Fair. Kepich Ford Mercury of Garrettsville, OH provided a Ford Mustang for EcoWater to display.

"The entire staff of EcoWater / Servisoft of Middlefield was thrilled to learn that the winning entry chosen for this year's Soft Life™ Sweepstakes is from our service area," said Denny Hall, owner of the EcoWater Systems dealership in Burton, OH. "Our staff looks forward to celebrating with the Litwinowiczs on November 10th."

"We're excited for the Litwinowiczs and for EcoWater Systems of Burton, OH," said Donald Brockley, president of EcoWater Systems LLC. "The annual Soft Life™ Sweepstakes serves as a wonderful opportunity for us to support our dealers and thank our loyal customers."
